

WEST VIRGINIA NORTH NYI CONVENTION DELEGATE FORM 08-09

In Section 2 of the West Virginia North NYI District Ministry Plan under WVN NYI Convention it states:

1. The annual WVN NYI Convention provides for inspirational sessions and programs to advance youth ministry across the district. Reports are received, leadership is elected, and any legislative business pertaining to work of NYI is translated at the Convention. Delegates to the Global NYI are also elected, consistent with the NYI Global Ministry Plan.
2. The WVN NYI Council arranges for and oversees the WVN NYI Convention, in cooperation with the District Superintendent. The Convention convenes at a time and place designated by the WVN NYI Council, with the approval of the District Superintendent, within ninety days of District Assembly.
3. The WVN NYI Convention is composed of the members of the WVN NYI Council, the District Superintendent, local pastors; others assigned ordained ministers of the district who participates in the NYI ministry, and local NYI Delegates.
4. All local NYI Delegates to the WVN NYI Convention must be members of the Church of the Nazarene that they represent.
5. The number of local NYI Delegates for each church is determined by the membership figures on the most recent local Pastor's Report prior to the District Assembly. District NYI Leadership encourages local churches to make suitable arrangements for the expenses of delegates attending the WVN NYI Convention.
6. The local NYI delegation to the WVN NYI Convention for churches with 30 or fewer NYI members consist of :
 - a. The pastor and youth pastor or any full-time paid pastoral staff who participates in NYI ministry;
 - b. The newly elected local NYI President;
 - c. Up to four elected delegates, with at least half being within the district-established NYI ministry focus.
7. The Pastor of any local church or director of an approval Nazarene Compassionate Ministries Center not having an organized NYI may appoint one delegate.
